

PETER VINDEN

Chartered quantity surveyor, chairman of The Vinden Partnership

Professional background:

Current:

- Founder, chairman and director of the Vinden Partnership, a private practice specialising in the provision of quantity surveying, project management and dispute resolution services to the construction industry.

Previous:

- Group commercial director of the Counce Group, a main contractor in the specialist structural steelwork and cladding fields of construction, preceded by work in a number of private quantity surveying practices.

ADR/ Mediation Experience:

- 1997 Registered Adjudicator with the Association of Independent Construction Adjudicators
- 1999 Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
- 1999 Accredited as a Mediator by CEDR.
- 2000 – date registered with and accredited by a body of other Institutes.
- 2010 – received accreditation by ADR as a work place mediator.
- Experience gained in personnel, pharmaceutical, finance, manufacturing, land and construction disputes, some involving multi party disputes.
- Style – totally committed, robust and realistic; adopting an evaluative approach where perhaps a facilitative approach is not likely to result in settlement.