

PETER WHITMAN

Director

North West Mediation Solutions is administered by director, Peter Whitman. Peter's legal administrative career commenced in the late 1960s with his appointment as administrative clerk to Blackburn Quarter Sessions. He later became court clerk at Lancashire Quarter Sessions, transferring to Preston Crown Court on its inauguration. In 1983, he became clerk to the newly formed barristers' chambers at 14 Winckley Square in Preston, steering it through its formative years until 1991, when he became clerk to 8 King Street Chambers, remaining there until his retirement in 2005.

Peter is focused on making the mediation process as stress-free as possible, and his 35 years of experience in the legal sector ensure the highest standards of administration and client care.
